

“AACY Takes On Broadway”

Ninth Annual Hearts and “Soles” Benefit Dinner and Dance

November, 2018 - BOCA RATON, FL. Broadway is the theme of the Ninth Annual Hearts and “Soles” dinner dance to be held at the Pavilion Grille on Saturday, November 3rd with an entertaining and surprise-filled reception beginning at 6:00. Jeff Mueller of Polen Capital is serving as the event Emcee.

Caregiving youth, children who fill adult-sized shoes as they academically and personally sacrifice to provide care for ill, injured, elderly or disabled family members, are the beneficiaries of this event. The American Association of Caregiving Youth (AACY) which has served over 1,340 middle and high school students, is proud to have Debralyn and Ronnie Belletieri serving as Co-Chairs.

The Belletieri’s are business and bowling magnets of Strikes of Boca, the City’s only and very popular bowling facility.

AACY has raised national awareness about the otherwise hidden, unserved and growing population of children who serve as family caregivers. With support in school, out of school and at home from sixth through twelfth grades, children learn they are no longer alone, remain in school and graduate, often entering careers in healthcare.

The $150 event ticket includes a reception, open bar, multi-course dinner, dancing, music, wine wall, and silent auction. Western wear recommended; fun is not optional!

A mechanical bull will be at the event! Who will be able to ride the bull the longest?

The American Association of Caregiving Youth (www.aacy.org) is a Florida based 501 (c) (3) non-profit corporation. Its mission is to increase awareness and provide support services for youth caregivers and their families by connecting them with healthcare, education and community resources. The vision is for no child in the USA to ever have to drop out of school because of family caregiving responsibilities.
